women in rock memoirs vindicates the role of women in rock music the chapters examine memoirs written by women in rock from 2010 onwards to explore how the artists narrate their life experiences and difficulties they had to overcome not only as musicians but as women the book includes memoirs written by both well known and lesser known artists and artists from both inside and outside of the anglo american sphere the essays by scholars from different research areas and countries around the world are divided into three parts according to the overall themes memory trauma and writing authenticity sexuality and sexism and aging performance and the image they explore the dynamics of memoir as a genre by discussing the similarities and differences between the women in rock and the choices they have made when writing their books as a whole they help form a better understanding of today s possibilities and future challenges for women in rock music teresa and st george littledale were an unlikely british couple who explored central asia in the 1890s with their fox terrier the littledale s were very well known in their time for their extensive travels and exceptional adventures but have been almost completely forgotten this is the first book about their fascinating story st george littledale received the patron s medal from the royal geographical society but teresa was overlooked for thirty years st george littledale and his wife teresa mounted expeditions in north america and asia through a land of extremes gives a taste for a bygone time of travel into uncharted unknown territory when adventurers lived by a combination of wit charm and luck of independent means the littledales began in the american rockies yellowstone and alaska these trips were followed by expeditions in the late 1880s in the caucasus the pamirs russian central asia and mongolia their greatest exploit was a 14 month journey to tibet in 1895 they were attempting to reach the forbidden city of lhasa the great unmet goal of central asian explorers in order to minimize their chances of being discovered before they neared their goal st george selected a route across the desolate uninhabited tibetan plateau at a 19 000 foot pass they were finally blocked by 150 armed tibetans the tibetans allowed them to continue over the pass to a suitable stopping place the littledales had come within 49 miles of lhasa closer than any other foreigners since 1846 this title is part of our legends and lore series click here to learn more
